SUBJECT: DoD Transformation Priorities

Many thanks for your assistance this past summer developing the top 25 transformation priorities for the Department. While you have already begun to build strong interactive and collaborative relationships to refine and execute these priorities, please be mindful that the Department will be best served with integrated, unified, and synchronized execution plans for each of the 25 priorities.

Institutional Leads are expected to accommodate and adjudicate appropriate inputs from all contributing stakeholders for those priorities under their purview. For example, the Institutional Lead for Sustain Special Operations Force expansion plan (USSOCOM) should incorporate inputs from each Service in the overarching Departmental SOF expansion plan. Refinements to the milestone plans supporting each priority should take place as soon as possible. Attached is an updated list of priorities clarifying Institutional Leads.

The Director, Administration and Management, is currently compiling the first quarterly report covering progress made as of September 30, 2007. The report is expected to be delivered to me shortly with a potential presentation at a November DAWG meeting. As previously indicated, the Secretary and I also anticipate providing updates at future Senior Leader Review Groups and Defense Senior Leaders Conferences, as appropriate.

Finally, to enable successful and timely implementation of the priorities, please notify me if you identify assistance that the Secretary or I could offer to accelerate or advance your work.
